

Chestertown Lions Club October Activities

Chicken BBQ

It was a beautiful Saturday morning on October 3, 2021, with charcoal smoke billowing into the air across from the college on Washington Ave. This aroma signaled another Lions Club chicken barbeque in progress. Dinners went on sale around 10:30 am as cars began backing up early. Demand was so great again this year, that 700 dinners were sold in record time. Look for us in the Spring for another barbeque!

Chickens were on the grill very early Saturday morning.

Photo (left to right) Lions Bill Neff and Glenn Owens start up another batch.

Photo (left to right) Lions Mary Lou Pagella, Ken Roderick, and Kitty Neff look happy to start selling chicken dinners.

Photo (left to right) Special Guest Brian Moore and Lion Event Coordinator Bob Krohn prepare a food tray for the sales tables. Hey guys "No Sampling."

Photo (left to right) Lions Dave Menzie and Jim Lupis are ready to start selling. C'mon let's get going!

Photo (left to right) Lion Randy Cassidy enjoys one/two/three of Lion Fred Sherriff's delicious chicken livers.

Health & Wellness Expo Worton Community Center

Chestertown Lions Club participated in Homeport's Health & Wellness Expo on October 14, 2021 at the Kent County Community Center. Numerous health product and service sponsors, exhibitors, and advertiser were present. The Lions provided an exhibition of all our health-related activities and a selection of free refreshments.

Lions Alice & Dave Dunham staff the Lions Exhibition table.

Photo (left to right) Lions Herb Wilkerson, Rick Coffman & John Paoella provide free refreshments for visitors.

Lions Club Sponsors Annual Halloween Parade

While heavy rains on Friday shut down most of the Sultana's Downrigging activities, the weather turned out to be beautiful on Saturday morning for the annual Lions Club Halloween Parade. Crowd's lined Chestertown's downtown as always cheering on their favorites. This year there were two bands, numerous fire trucks and rescue vehicles, floats, and costumes organized by age group- pre-school, elementary school, middle school, high school and adults, and groups. Prizes ranging from $19-$25 were awarded for costumes and for band and float categories.

Kent County High School band was dressed out in their finest costume hats.

First place for middle school costumes was “The Plague Doctor.”

Costume Group was well represented this year.

Photo (left to right) Lions Matt Kempel and Rick Coffman prepare to lead the elementary school contestants down High Street (Hope they make it!!)

T-Rex took first place in High School & Adult Category (Hope he's been fed!)

Kent County Spartans cheerleaders took first prize in the Group Category.

Photo (left to right) Lions Matt Bershon and Ken Roderick are just going have to wait for the parade to move again near the viewing stand.